UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
OAKLAND DIVISION

In re:

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC BISHOP OF
OAKLAND, a California corporation sole,

Debtor.

Case No. 23-40523 WJL

Chapter 11

CONFIDENTIALITY AND PROTECTIVE
ORDER

This Confidentiality and Protective Order (“Protective Order”) shall govern the production, review, disclosure, and handling of any Disclosure or Discovery Material (as defined herein) by any person or entity in connection with the above-captioned Chapter 11 case pending before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California (the “Bankruptcy Court”), Case No. 23-40523 (WJL) (the “Chapter 11 Case”), as well as Adversary Proceeding No. 23-04028 and Adversary Proceeding No. 23-04037 (the “Adversary Proceedings”). All references to the Chapter 11 Case shall be deemed to include, where the circumstances require, the Adversary Proceedings and any other adversary proceeding commenced in the Chapter 11 Case.

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this Chapter 11 Case are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than in connection with this Chapter 11 Case may be warranted. Accordingly, the court enters the following Order. This Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. Further, as set forth in Section 12.3, below, this Order does not entitle the Parties to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 (applicable pursuant to Bankruptcy Local Rule 1001-2(a)) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a Party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

This Order does not affect, amend or modify any existing confidentiality agreements, intercreditor agreements, protective orders applicable to any Producing Person and/or Receiving Party, or any prior order of this Court entered in the Chapter 11 Case, including without limitation the Order Establishing Deadlines for Filing Proofs of Claim and Approving the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof [Dkt. No. 293 in the Chapter 11 Case, and any subsequent amendments], except that the Revised Confidentiality Agreement and Stipulated Protective Order [Dkt. No. 288] and Order Approving Revised Confidentiality Agreement and Stipulated Protective Order [Dkt. No. 331] shall only apply to Disclosure or Discovery Material produced before the date hereof. This Order applies to all Disclosure or Discovery Material (as defined herein) produced by a Producing Party to a Receiving Party, formally or informally, on or after the date hereof.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of information or items under this Order.

1 2.2 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as 2 their support staff).

3 2.3 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it
4 produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

5 2.4 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium or 6 manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony,
7 transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery 8 in this matter.

9 2.5 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to this
10 Chapter 11 Case who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a 11 consultant in this Chapter 11 Case. For purposes of this Order, the Insurance Services Office or ISO, or 12 any other such claims database provider, shall not be an “Expert.”

13 2.6 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a Party in this Chapter 11 Case. House
14 Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

15 2.7 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity
16 that is not a Party in this Chapter 11 Case.

17 2.8 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a Party but are retained to 18 represent or advise a Party in this Chapter 11 Case and have appeared in this Chapter 11 Case on behalf
19 of that Party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of that Party.

20 2.9 Party: any party or party-in-interest in this Chapter 11 Case, including all of its officers,
21 directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their support 22 staffs).

23 2.10 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery Material in 24 this Chapter 11 Case.

25 2.11 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., 26 photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or 27 retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

1 2.12 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as 2 “CONFIDENTIAL” and is not excepted from the scope of Protected Material under Section 3 or any other 3 applicable provision hereof.

4 2.13 Receiving Party: any of the following Parties that receives Disclosure or Discovery
5 Material from a Producing Party:

- 6 a. The Debtor and its employees;
- 7 b. The defendant insurance companies in the Adversary Proceedings, including the California
8 Insurance Guarantee Association, (each an “Insurer” and collectively the “Insurers”) 9 together with their respective successors, regulators, reinsurers, administrators, and 10 counsel;
- 11 c. The Committee’s professionals, members of the Committee, including their respective 12 counsel who are assisting with or making decisions with respect to the Adversary
13 Proceedings or the Chapter 11 Case, as to each strictly on a need to know basis after they 14 sign Exhibit A hereto;
- 15 d. The U.S. Trustee;
- 16 e. Any other Party, with the consent of the Producing Person, who has signed Exhibit A 17 hereto; and
- 18 f. Any other persons specified in Paragraph 11 below, as to each strictly on a need to know 19 basis after they sign Exhibit A hereto.

20 3. SCOPE

21 The protections conferred by this Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above),but 22 also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries,
23 or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties
24 or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material. However, the protections conferred by this Order
25 do not cover, and Protected Material shall not include, the following information: (a) any information that 26 is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain
27 after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not involving a violation of this Order, 28 including becoming part of the public record through trial or otherwise; (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party; (c) information that the Producing Party knows, at the time of disclosure, is in the possession of any entity who is not subject to this Order or to any confidentiality or nondisclosure agreement or other

1 legal restriction on disclosure with respect to such information; (d) information that is disclosed to a
2 Receiving Party by, or acquired in the ordinary course of business and in good faith from, a third party
3 who is not, to a Receiving Party's knowledge, information or belief, in violation of this Order or to any 4 confidentiality or nondisclosure agreement or other legal restriction on disclosure with respect to such 5 information; (e) information that is lawfully independently developed, discovered, or arrived at by a Party
6 without violating this Order; or (f) any information which the Court orders not be protected as Confidential
7 Information or as "trade secret or confidential research, development, or commercial information" under 8 section 107(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. For the avoidance of doubt, "public domain" information 9 includes, without limitation, any information that may be obtained through a request under the federal 10 Freedom of Information Act, the California Public Records Act, or any similar freedom of information or 11 open records law of any state, territory, or municipality, as well as any information lodged in the publicly
12 searchable or reviewable records of any court or other governmental agency. Any use of Protected
13 Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

14 4. DURATION

15 Even after final disposition of this Chapter 11 Case, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this 16 Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise
17 directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) conversion or dismissal of this Chapter 11
18 Case; and (2) the closing of this Chapter 11 Case.

19 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

20 5.1 Confidential Material: A Producing Party or Designating Party may designate Disclosure 21 or Discovery Material as "CONFIDENTIAL" if such Producing Party believes in good faith (or with 22 respect to documents received from another person or entity, has been reasonably advised by such other
23 person or entity) that: (i) such Disclosure or Discovery Material (A) constitutes or contains nonpublic 24 proprietary or confidential technical, business, financial, personal or other information of a nature that can 25 be protected under 11 U.S.C. § 107(b)(1), Bankruptcy Rules 7026, 9014 or 9018, and/or Federal Rule of 26 Civil Procedure 26(c); (B) constitutes or contains information that the court in this Chapter 11 Case has 27 determined must be protected under 11 U.S.C. § 107(b)(2) or Bankruptcy Rule 9018; (C) is subject by 28 law or by contract to a legally protected right of privacy; or (D) is information that is believed to

1 unreasonably invade the legally protectable privacy right of an individual; or (ii) the Producing Party (A)
2 is under a preexisting obligation to a third-party to treat such Disclosure or Discovery Material as 3 confidential; or (B) has in good faith been requested by a Designating Party to so designate such 4 Disclosure or Discovery Material on the grounds that such other Party considers such Disclosure or 5 Discovery Material to contain information that is confidential or proprietary to such Party of a nature that 6 can be protected under 11 U.S.C. § 107(b)(1), Bankruptcy Rules 7026, 9014 or 9018, and/or Federal Rule
7 of Civil Procedure 26(c).

8 5.2 Highly Confidential Material: A Producing Party or Designating Party may designate 9 Disclosure or Discovery Material as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” if such Producing Party believes in 10 good faith (or with respect to documents received from another person or entity, has been reasonably 11 advised by such other person or entity) that such Disclosure or Discovery Material constitutes or includes 12 highly confidential Disclosure or Discovery Material that is of such a nature that a risk of competitive or 13 other injury of a nature that can be protected under 11 U.S.C. § 107(b)(1), Bankruptcy Rules 7026, 9014
14 or 9018, and/or Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) would be created if such Discovery Material were 15 disclosed to persons or entities other than those identified in Paragraph 7.3 of this Order. Any model that 16 has been customized by a testifying expert or is not commercially available and is used by such expert in 17 connection with preparing an opinion, may be produced as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.”

18 5.3 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or Non-19 Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to limit any such 20 designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must 21 designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications 22 that qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which 23 protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

24 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown to be 25 clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or 26 retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties)
27 expose the Designating Party to sanctions.
28

1 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated for 2 protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties that 3 it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

4 5.4 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order (see, e.g., 5 second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery
6 Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is 7 disclosed or produced.

8 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

9 (a) For information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but excluding 10 transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the legend 11 "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that contains protected material. If 12 only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must 13 clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

14 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection need not 15 designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it would like 16 copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the material made available
17 for inspection shall be deemed "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL." After the inspecting Party has identified 18 the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or 19 portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified documents,
20 the Producing Party must affix the "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" legend to each 21 page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 22 protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making 23 appropriate markings in the margins).

24 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the Designating
25 Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all protected 26 testimony.

27 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other tangible
28 items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in

1 which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.”
2 If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the 3 extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

4 5.5 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate
5 qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s right to secure
6 protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party 7 must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of 8 this Order.

9 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

10 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of 11 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party’s confidentiality designation 12 is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant 13 disruption or delay of the Chapter 11 Case, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality 14 designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

15 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process by 16 providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each challenge.
17 To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written notice must recite that the 18 challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph of the Protective 19 Order. The Parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must begin the process by 20 conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) within 21 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its 22 belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an 23 opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in 24 designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed 25 to the next stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or 26 establishes that the Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely 27 manner.
28

1 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court intervention,
2 the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under Bankruptcy Local Rules
3 9013 and 9014-1 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) within 21 days of the initial 4 notice of challenge or within 14 days of the Parties agreeing that the meet and confer process will not
5 resolve their dispute, whichever is earlier. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent 6 declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed in the 7 preceding paragraph. Failure by the Designating Party to make such a motion including the required
8 declaration within 21 days (or 14 days, if applicable) shall automatically waive the confidentiality
9 designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the Challenging Party may file a motion
10 challenging a confidentiality designation at any time if there is good cause for doing so, including a 11 challenge to the designation of a deposition transcript or any portions thereof. Any motion brought 12 pursuant to this provision must be accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant has 13 complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed by the preceding paragraph.

14 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating Party.
15 Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary 16 expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the 17 Designating Party has waived the confidentiality designation by failing to file a motion to retain 18 confidentiality as described above, all Parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of 19 protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the court rules on the 20 challenge.

21 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

22 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or 23 produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this Chapter 11 Case solely in connection
24 with this Chapter 11 Case, the Adversary Proceedings, or in any judicial or mediation proceeding that may 25 result therefrom. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under 26 the conditions described in this Order. When the Chapter 11 Case and Adversary Proceedings have 27 terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL 28 DISPOSITION).

Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

7.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may receive information or items designated “CONFIDENTIAL” and may disclose any information or item designated “CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

- (a) The Debtor and its employees;
- (b) The Committee’s professionals, members of the Committee, including their respective counsel who are assisting with or making decisions with respect to the Chapter 11 Case, as to each strictly on a need to know basis after they sign the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;
- (c) the U.S. Trustee; and
- (d) Any other persons specified in Paragraph 7.3 on the respective applicable terms stated therein.

7.3 Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

- (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this Chapter 11 Case, as well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this Chapter 11 Case, provided that a single natural person on behalf of each such Outside Counsel of Record has signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;
- (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Chapter 11 Case, provided that a single natural person on behalf of each such Receiving Party has signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);
- (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Chapter 11 Case and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), which such signed “Acknowledgement and Agreement to Be Bound” form is not required to be produced to the Designating Party, but instead may be verified and held by Counsel for the Receiving Party;

(d) the court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Chapter 11 Case and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(f) during their depositions, witnesses in the Chapter 11 Case to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Protective Order. For the avoidance of doubt, deposition witnesses may not retain any copies of documents marked “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” unless they sign Exhibit A.

(g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

(h) any neutral mediator or arbitrator appointed by the Court or retained by agreement of the Parties in connection with the Chapter 11 Case, and such neutral mediator’s or arbitrator’s staff; and

(i) the U.S. Trustee.

For any such person or entity that must sign the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to be Bound (Exhibit A) (“Acknowledgement”) in accordance with Sections 7.2 or 7.3, the Parties agree that each such entity or organization need only execute one such Acknowledgment, which written Acknowledgment shall apply to and bind all employees of that entity or organization.

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this Chapter 11 Case as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

1 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of 2 the subpoena or court order;

3 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other
4 litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this Order. Such 5 notification shall include a copy of this Order; and

6 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the Designating 7 Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

8 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena or 9 court order shall not produce any information designated in this Chapter 11 Case as “CONFIDENTIAL”
10 or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order
11 issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party shall bear 12 the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in 13 these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this Chapter 11
14 Case to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

15 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS 16 CHAPTER 11 CASE AND/OR THE ADVERSARY PROCEEDING

17 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in this 18 Chapter 11 Case and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.” Such 19 information produced by Non-Parties in connection with this Chapter 11 Case is protected by the remedies
20 and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-21 Party from seeking additional protections.

22 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a Non-Party’s
23 confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not 24 to produce the Non-Party’s confidential information, then the Party shall:

25 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some or all of 26 the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;

(2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Protective Order in this Chapter 11 Case, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific description of the information requested; and

(3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party.

(c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court.

Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the Parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or information covered by the attorney-client

1 privilege or work product protection, the Parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated
2 protective order submitted to the court.

3 12. MISCELLANEOUS

4 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its 5 modification by the court in the future.

6 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. Nothing in this Protective Order waives any right by a
7 Party that it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any 8 ground not addressed in this Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground
9 to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

10 12.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court
11 order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record in 12 this Chapter 11 Case any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material
13 must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a 14 court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 15 79-5, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the Protected Material at issue is 16 privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under the law. If a Receiving 17 Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5 is denied by the 18 court, then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 19 79-5 unless otherwise instructed by the court.

20 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

21 Each Receiving Party must make best efforts to return all Protected Material to the Producing Party
22 or destroy such material within 60 days after the final disposition of this Chapter 11 Case, as defined in 23 paragraph 4, or after such time is needed by a Party to meet the requirements of its auditors, accountants,
24 regulatory agencies, or reinsurers, whichever is longer. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected 25 Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or 26 capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether best efforts are taken to return or destroy the Protected 27 Material, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the 28 same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the applicable deadline that (1) identifies (by category,

1 where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the 2 Receiving Party has made best efforts not to retain any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any 3 other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material.

4 Notwithstanding the above requirements to return or destroy Protected Material, any applicable
5 Receiving Party or Counsel may retain (i) such Discovery Material as it reasonably believes (and at all 6 times continues to reasonably believe) are required in order to satisfy applicable law, ethical, or 7 professional obligations, (ii) any analyses, abstracts, studies, summaries, or reports prepared by the 8 Receiving Party or its Counsel based on, containing, or reflecting Protected Material; (iii) any portions of 9 the Protected Material that are publicly available through no wrongful act or violation of this Protective
10 Order on the part of the entity or the individual who caused the information to become generally available
11 to the public through publication or otherwise, (iv) any Protected Material that is produced or stored in 12 electronic format and that is not reasonably capable of being returned or destroyed, and such Protected
13 Material shall remain confidential subject to the terms and restrictions contained in this Protective Order
14 and shall be stored in such a fashion so as to prevent their disclosure. Nothing in this section shall require 15 any party to destroy attorney work product or attorney-client communications that contain or reflect 16 Protected Material.

17 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Receiving Party or its Counsel may retain such 18 Protected Material in accordance with this Protective Order, provided that they continue to treat all
19 produced material in the manner provided in this Protective Order, and (iv) any portions of Protected
20 Material that it reasonably believes cannot be practicably destroyed (such as oral communications, e-mail
21 back-up records, bank-up server tapes, and any records of similar such automated record-keeping or other 22 retention systems). Any retained Protected Material shall continue to be protected under this Protective 23 Order.

EXHIBIT A

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND

I, _____ [print or type full name], of _____ [print or type full address],

() am an authorized representative of _____ [name of entity], or

() am executing this agreement in my individual capacity, and declare under penalty of perjury that I have read in its entirety and understand the Confidentiality and Protective Order that was issued by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California on [date] in the case of In re The Roman Catholic Bishop of Oakland, a California corporation sole, Case No. 23-40523 (WJL) (the "Order"). I agree to comply with and to be bound by all the terms of this Protective Order and I understand and acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt. I solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any information or item that is subject to this Order to any person or entity except in strict compliance with the provisions of this Protective Order.

If I am agreeing to the Order in my capacity as the authorized representative of an entity, I agree that the entity will comply with and be bound by all the terms of the Order and will inform all of its employees that it reasonably anticipates will come in contact with Protected Material. I further understand and acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose the entity to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt.

I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California for the purpose of enforcing the terms of the Protective Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this Chapter 11 Case.
